[00:00:00.35] Bissell.

(SPEECH)

[00:00:00.99] Being cordless is one of the big innovations in the new CrossWave, but it's definitely not the only one. The CrossWave Cordless Max is one of the most technologically-advanced machines BISSELL has ever made.

[00:00:12.63] The sleek new control panel has a lighted display that shows you when the dirty water bin is full. If you're in hard floor or area rug mode, how much charge is left in the battery, and if the machine is connected to Wi-Fi.

[00:00:24.30] When you're done cleaning, set the CrossWave in the 3-in-1 docking station. If you press the self-cleaning cycle button, the CrossWave will clean itself.

[00:00:33.67] Recharges.

(SPEECH)

[00:00:33.96] Plus, while it's in the docking station, the battery will automatically recharge, so you'll be ready for the next time.

[00:00:39.24] App.

(SPEECH)

[00:00:39.66] The CrossWave Cordless Max is also Wi-Fi enabled, so you can use the BISSELL Connect app to track your cleaning and get alerts when the machine needs maintenance.

[00:00:48.12] Cordless freedom, powerful suction, and high-tech innovation.

[00:00:52.38] You get it all with the CrossWave Cordless Max.
